Besides structure, though, there's one other important point you should know about writing: the first sentence of every paragraph you write, whether it's in an essay or not, should be a topic sentence. In other words, you must start each paragraph with a clear topic so the reader can follow your train of thought.

Part I: Introduction--What inspired my argumentative response? For decades, too many high-school teachers have been instilling persuasive writing skills by teaching students the five-paragraph essay.

Introduction: Introductory Paragraph. See, first, Writing Introductory Paragraphs for different ways of getting your reader involved in your essay. The introductory paragraph should also include the thesis statement, a kind of mini-outline for the paper: it tells the reader what the essay is about.

How to Write an Essay Outline. Essay outlines provide structure and guidance for writers as they begin the drafting process. An outline should briefly summarize the intended content of your essay and organize that content in a sensible,...
