

Download Consult Me A Romantic Suspense Novella

In a future where human nature remains as predictable as death, a killer plays God and puts innocent lives in the palm of his hand in this novel in the #1 New York Times bestselling In Death series. With the precision of a surgeon, a serial killer preys on the most vulnerable souls of the world's city streets. A documentary film is a nonfictional motion picture intended to document some aspect of reality, primarily for the purposes of instruction, education, or maintaining a historical record. "Documentary" has been described as a "filmmaking practice, a cinematic tradition, and mode of audience reception" that is continually evolving and is without clear boundaries. Alysia Abbott is the author of Fairyland, A Memoir of My Father (W.W. Norton), named one of the best books of 2013 by the San Francisco Chronicle, Shelf Awareness and GoodReads, and recently optioned by film-maker Sofia Coppola. Her work has appeared in The New York Times, The Boston Globe, Vogue, Real Simple, Slate, Psychology Today, and The Atlantic.com, among other publications. The words of Henry James have never sounded as leaden and preposterous as they do in Julien Landais's The Aspern Papers, a disastrously inept adaptation of James's classic novella of psychological gamesmanship and literary obsession. The filmmakers have leached the richness, sophistication, and suspense from the novella and replaced them with inert melodrama and desperately gratuitous sex ...
