An Inquest can be a traumatic experience for anybody involved. Our aim is to help, guide and support everyone attending an Inquest. The CCSS's trained volunteers will guide people through the often complicated and bewildering process and explain the Inquest procedure to you, helping you have a much better understanding of your role with this often unfamiliar environment. A list of state coroner's guidelines, publications, maps, practice directions, legislation, and useful agencies relating to Coroners Court. A coroner may conduct or order an inquest into the manner or cause of death, and investigate or confirm the identity of an unknown person who has been found dead within the coroner's jurisdiction. In medieval times, English coroners were Crown officials who held financial powers and conducted some judicial investigations in order to counterbalance the power of sheriffs.

119 Annual report E+W (1) The Council must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, make to the Lord Chancellor a report on the exercise of the Council's functions during the year.
