Powell's Blog Original Essays The Year I Thought a Pizza Franchise Was a Breakfast Cereal by Xuan Juliana Wang Someone once told me that before a child acquires language for the first time, their world is connected. Prior to that, there is no difference between a mother's face and her hair, the grass and the dirt...The first five years of a child's life are a time of tremendous physical, emotional, social and cognitive growth. Children enter the world with many needs in order to grow: love, nutrition, health, social and emotional security and stimulation in the important skills that prepare them for school success.
