The International Society of Plastic and Aesthetic Nurses (ISPAN) and Society of Plastic Surgical Skin Care Specialists (SPSSCS) are pleased to offer a joint membership opportunity to certified nurses interested in joining both societies at a discounted rate. Visit our Joint Membership: page for more information! What Is a Plastic Surgery Nurse? Cosmetic or aesthetic medicine is a specialty that focuses on improving the appearance of a part of the body. This can be accomplished using invasive (i.e. surgery, lasers, injections) or non-invasive (chemical peel, microdermabrasion, medication) procedures. 951 Plastic Surgery Nurse jobs available on Indeed.com. Apply to Registered Nurse, Fgp Sec I-intake/sched-plastic Surgery, Front Desk Agent and more! Plastic surgery nurses are also known as aesthetic nurses and reconstructive surgery nurses. To be a nurse with this specialization, you must first become a registered nurse (RN), and then you must obtain certifications in reconstructive and cosmetic surgery.
