

Download Saving The Great White Monster

Scholastic

You've just read "Saving the Great White Monster". Now do this activity to help you better understand the article. Tip: Text evidence means details in a story that support an answer, or show that it is true. What to do: Use text evidence—or details from the article—to answer the questions below. We did the first one for you. Vocabulary from Scholastic Scope article "Saving the Great White Monster" in February 2014. Learn with flashcards, games, and more — for free. Saving the Great White Monster page. 4. Many fishermen don't even bother to bring the sharks back to shore. They just hack off the fins . while at sea and leave the sharks to die in the ocean. Rising Alarm. Sharks are some of Earth's oldest creatures. Tens of millions of years ago, as . Tyrannosaurus rex. was roaring across America's Great Plains, Saving the Great White Monster page 2 It does not have fanged teeth or strangling tentacles. It doesn't even live in the sea. The creature killing the sharks is the human being. Killing for Soup People have been hunting sharks for thousands of years. In the 1800s, Americans relied on oil from shark livers to waterproof their ships. Native