The Canadian Patient Safety Institute (CPSI) is a not-for-profit organization that exists to raise awareness and facilitate implementation of ideas. Communication (from Latin communicare, meaning "to share") is the act of conveying meanings from one entity or group to another through the use of mutually understood signs, symbols, and semiotic rules. The main steps inherent to all communication are: The formation of communicative motivation or reason.; Message composition (further internal or technical elaboration on what exactly to express).

5.1.1 Canadian exposure to lead from drinking water. Lead concentrations were sampled at 65 sites in all provinces and territories in the summer and winter seasons during 2009–2010 for the National Survey of Disinfection By-Products and Selected Drinking Water Contaminants in Canadian Drinking Water (2009–2010) (Health Canada, 2014).
