Kindergarten

I was watching youtube videos, trying to scan and preview them for my class (to save on time at school) and I found the OLD (don't want to use that word because I watched it in school lol) School House rock song. How awesome! :) I started a pinterest board with some of those great songs and videos from Kindergarten, and I asked him how he liked his activity--I knew I had found a winner! :) I had given a set of my CVC Making Words activities to his Kindergarten teacher. So we finally come to a subject none of us likes talking much about--weight! Because, you know at some point one of your little darlings is going to ask, "How much do you weigh?". Luckily, in kindergarten, we deal strictly in non-standard units of measurement. So I'm honest. I tell them. Approximately 15,000 cubes. If they can figure out how many pounds that is, then I really am a phenomenal ...At Scholastic, we believe that the development of robust literacy skills is at the very heart of empowering children to thrive in school and in life.
